SUMMER CAMPS 2013

"that ye may know" 1 JOHN 5:13

CAMPERS & PARENTS PLEASE NOTE

What to Bring: Bible, notebook and pens, bedding for bunk bed and pillow, 4-5 towels, bathrobe or sweats (to cover from neck to knee when going to shower house), 6-8 changes of clothes for activities, one set of old clothes that Mom will never want to see again, nice shoes and clothes for evening services, sneakers for activities, old tennis shoes for water games, warm jacket for cool or wet evenings, swimsuit, music and instrument for music contest, $20-$50 spending money for camp stores (crafts range from $1-$10; camp shirts cost $12-$25) or extra horse rides/cookouts/canoeing.

Our program themes use an historical event as a reference for skits, scoring, etc. and include competitive, often non-traditional games. Campers can enter a solo music competition, but need to be ready to play or sing a hymn or patriotic piece.

We try to provide a spiritually uplifting environment for campers. Lack of contact with the cares of the world coupled with the quiet beauty of the great outdoors frees campers to focus their thoughts on Jesus Christ and respond to Him. Please note the following guidelines we ask each camper to pledge to follow to help us protect campers' focus on Christ while at camp:

- 1) Males and females swim at separate times.
- 2) Music on the campground is decidedly conservative in style.
- 3) Physical contact (e.g. holding hands, kissing) is not allowed.
- 4) Campers are not allowed to have:
*Electronics of any kind [ipods, computer games, etc. especially cell phones!]
any controlled substances, matches, fireworks, knives or weapons of any kind, clothing with worldly advertising [e.g. alcohol brands,
music groups/stars], questionable reading material, tight or revealing clothing.*
- 5) Please note the following clothing guidelines for campers as you pack.

Please have your child read these guidelines again before you pack. We do not want him/her to be surprised by our clothing standards when they get to camp. We know there are vast differences of opinion and tastes in clothing and these guidelines must not be construed as defining what is biblically "right and wrong." They only provide a consistent and "safe" standard for campers coming together for a week from a variety of backgrounds.

As a basic rule all clothing for men and women should cover from shoulders to the knees (including when sitting) with no rips or holes exposing bare skin or undergarments. This would exclude tanktops, spaghetti straps, or muscle shirts. We encourage campers to pack a long bathrobe or sweats and shirt to use as a cover from their cabin to the shower house and swimming pool.

Teen and Junior ladies:

Skirts or dresses are to be worn for evening chapel. Any slits should be no higher than the knee. Loose-fitting slacks, capris, and jeans may be worn for activities. Swimsuits may be two-piece but must cover like a one-piece.

Teen and Junior young men:

Shorts worn must cover the knee including when sitting. For evening services nice shirts and long pants must be worn.

6) Non-cooperative campers may be dismissed (with no refund of fees).

Lost & Found: PLEASE MARK ALL OF YOUR CHILD'S BELONGINGS! Lost items not requested within 30 days are disposed of. Campers pay postage on items returned.

Medical Note: During youth camps all medications are kept in and dispensed from the nurse's station. All medications (including over the counter meds or vitamins) must be in original bottles or packaging with dosing instructions and sell by or use by date. If an emergency causes a camper to be sent to a medical facility, every effort is made to contact parents.

To send mail to your camper: Your Child's Name

PO Box 18
Georgetown, IL 61846

Parents and pastors may join their camper(s) for supper on Friday night. Cost per person is $6. Please call by noon on Friday of your child's camp week.
